2021 PRIMITIVO

BOLTON VINEYARD

This vineyard is located in the Gorge on the Washington side of the Columbia Valley. Its location makes for rich flavors of pepper and spice to make this stellar red wine. It gets lots of wind and sun to keep it happy. It was planted in 2013 and is hand-picked each year.

TASTING NOTES:

This Primitivo, also known as Zinfandel, was aged for 21 months in neutral French oak. Big fruit hits you on the nose and the palate with black cherry, fruit leather, and ripe figs. A very rich wine like this pairs nicely with winter stews, roasted meats, Persian dishes such as kebabs and rice dishes.

VARIETAL: Primitivo

VINEYARD: Bolton Family Vineyards

AVA: Columbia Valley/Washington

BARREL AGING: French Oak,
18 months

ALCOHOL: 15.9%
